Shaun Forward

Biography. Shaun studied Technical Illustration at Bournemouth & Poole College of Art in the 70s and has since enjoyed a 50-year career in the graphic design industry.

Now retired, he has more time to devote to the finer arts and particularly enjoys observational painting en plein air, and is an active member of three art societies. Commissions happily undertaken.

The original artworks displayed here cover a range of fine art disciplines, including: pen & ink illustration, painting in oils & acrylics, as well as limited edition Lino prints (available framed or loose).

PAINTINGS

Original paintings of coastal buildings, small boats, fruit & veg...

I mainly paint in acrylics, oils and I also enjoy watercolours and pastels.

I prefer to paint from life - 'en plein air' - and very rarely use photographic reference.

Each piece carries a signed certificate of authenticity on the frame's reverse.

Commissions of your favourite locations undertaken.

PEN & INK ILLUSTRATIONS

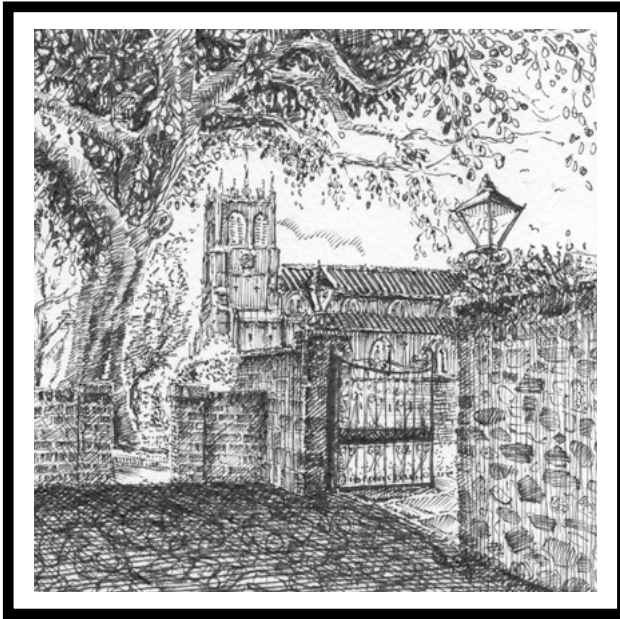

I think it is worthwhile pointing out that the framed pen & ink drawings on display, are the original items - they are not prints.

Each original piece is drawn using permanent waterproof ink, on high-quality watercolour paper or art board. I prefer to draw from life - 'en plein air' - and very rarely use photographic reference. Each piece carries a signed certificate of authenticity on the reverse.

Commissions of your favourite locations undertaken.

RELIEF PRINTS

Limited edition prints made from my own hand-cut blocks. These ARE prints.

Each spot colour is hand printed from inked blocks, which I firstly draw and then hand carve out of sheet Lino[®]. Subtle variation between pulls is an intrinsic and unique quality of this art form. Each print is numbered in its edition and signed - and carries a signed certificate of authenticity.

Suggestions for prints or commissioned bespoke greetings card sets etc. undertaken.
